President's Message

A big thank you to everyone who worked hard to make sewn / quilted items, those who baked and who donated auction and sale items, and thanks to all who showed up to help with our fundraiser Bazaar at Calvary Lutheran Church on October 28. The auction was quite fun thanks to our flamboyant auctioneer from Hound Dog Auctions. Our total earnings were $2,226.87. Our treasurer, Judy Pearson Piercy, will have a full financial report with breakdowns at the November 24 meeting. The unsold handmade items were gathered up at the end of the day and were taken home for safekeeping by various members working the clean-up. These remaining items will be brought to our main November meeting on Monday, November 24 for you to claim your remaining items.

The holidays are almost upon us. Our next therapy day is on Monday, November 17. Don't forget - SENIOR CENTER IS CLOSED ON THE SECOND MONDAY, NOV. 10, FOR VETERANS DAY, so our November therapy day is scheduled for November 17. This program was originally scheduled for July and ended up being traded for November. Members are asked to bring their favorite quilting tool or item and share with the group. Since there didn't seem to be a lot of interest in this, I have made a slight change and made this a combination program. We will host a SIT AND SEW for the remainder of the morning after the quilt tools presentations. Dig out that UFO or Christmas project that you need to hurry and finish up. Come enjoy some concentrated sewing time with your fellow quilters.

Newsletter articles for December are due no later than Monday December 1. The newsletter will be published mid-week due to travel.

The Burke Quilter Guild meets the first (sometimes), second, and fourth Monday of each month at the Burke Senior Center, 501 N Green St, Morganton, NC, 28655. See burkequiltersguild.com for current schedule.

It's a Challenge

The Challenge this year is simple. This being the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, the challenge theme is "America – Past, Present, and Future".

As with all other challenges, size is a perimeter greater than or equal to 100 and no more than 200 inches.

Program Information

There are a couple of changes to programs for November from what is in the Yearbook. First, Therapy Day will be on Nov 17 due to the Senior Center closure for Veteran's Day. The Therapy Day will be members sharing their favorite sewing tools followed by a sit and sew sewcial.

The program on November 24th will be a Trunk Show by member, Nolita Wacaster.

See you all there.
